Re: ABC, et al. v. Aereo, Inc., Nos. 12-Civ-1540, 1543-AJN (S.D.N.Y.) (Consolidated)

Dear Judge Nathan:

Pursuant to Rules 1B and 4A of the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases and the Court's Order dated September 8, 2014 [Dkt. No. 332], Plaintiffs submit this joint letter on behalf of Plaintiffs and Defendant Aereo, Inc. (collectively, "the Parties") requesting the Court to file under seal the documents listed below in support of Plaintiffs' Reply Memorandum on Remand in Support of a Preliminary Injunction:

1. Portions of the Reply Memorandum on Remand in Support of a Preliminary Injunction ("Reply Brief");
2. Portions of the Declaration of Julie Shepard and portions of Exhibits A-I and K-M thereto; and
3. Exhibit A to the Declaration of Bruce Keller.¹

As required by Your Honor's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, attached hereto are (1) a full set of these documents in highlighted form, and (2) one partial, loose leaf set comprised solely of the pages on which the Parties seek redactions. The Parties have met and conferred regarding these jointly proposed redactions.

Plaintiffs' Confidential Information:

Plaintiffs request, and Aereo does not oppose, that the Court authorize a few, narrowly-tailored redactions in connection with this filing. Pursuant to Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 120 (2nd Cir. 2006), judicial documents may be protected from public disclosure when taking into account, among other things, “the privacy interests of those resisting disclosure.” In light of Lugosch, and pursuant to Sections 1.B and 4.A of Your Honor’s Individual Practices in Civil Cases, Plaintiffs request that the portions of documents and testimony referencing agreements and negotiations with third parties be filed under seal because these documents contain confidential, commercially sensitive information that is non-public and integral to Plaintiffs’ businesses and considered confidential by third parties. Disclosure of the terms of such agreements with third parties and the terms at issue in Plaintiffs’ negotiations would potentially harm Plaintiffs’ position in future negotiations and Plaintiffs’ relationships with their business partners. See In re Zyprexa Injunction, 474 F. Supp. 2d 385, 421-22; (E.D.N.Y. 2007) (“confidential commercial information . . . revelation [of which] has the potential to impinge on the company’s privacy and property rights and inflict commercial harm.”); accord Standard Inv., 2008 WL 199537, at *8 (quoting Nixon, 425 U.S. 598). In sum, Plaintiffs’ redactions “are narrowly tailored, limited in scope, and justified to protect [the Plaintiffs’] confidential and proprietary business information.” See Dkt. 215 at 5 (citing Lugosch, 435 F.3d at 120; Zyprexa Litig., 474 F. Supp. 2d at 421).

Defendant’s Confidential Information:

Aereo requests, and Plaintiffs do not oppose, that the Court authorize a few, narrowly-tailored redactions in connection with this filing. See Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 120 (2d Cir. 2006). The information Aereo wishes to redact constitutes highly confidential information that is so competitively sensitive it is entitled to extraordinary protection. See Standard Inv. Chartered, Inc. v. National Ass’n of Securities Dealers, Inc., No. 07-Civ-2014, 2008 WL 199537, at *8 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 22, 2008) (quoting Nixon v. Warner Commc’ns, Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 598 (1978)). In particular, Aereo wishes to redact certain information regarding the highly confidential methods by which the Aereo technology operates, including the methods by which the Aereo technology limits playback of over-the-air broadcasts to members within the geographic area served by over-the-air signals. Aereo further wishes to redact certain information regarding Aereo’s proprietary business strategies and discussions, which constitute Aereo’s “confidential commercial information . . . revelation [of which] has the potential to impinge on the company’s privacy and property rights and inflict commercial harm.” See In re Zyprexa Injunction, 474 F. Supp. 2d 385, 421-22; (E.D.N.Y. 2007); accord Standard Inv., 2008 WL 199537, at *8 (quoting Nixon, 425 U.S. 598).

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Julie A. Shepard
